

MRS. KIESO SICK SEVEN MONTHS

Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Aurora, Ill.—"For seven long months I suffered from a female trouble, with severe pains in my back and sides until I became so weak I could hardly walk from chair to chair, and got so nervous I would jump at the slightest noise. I was entirely unfit to do my housework, I was giving up hope of ever being well, when my sister asked me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took six bottles and today I am a healthy woman able to do my own housework. I wish every suffering woman would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and find out for themselves how good it is."—Mrs. C. A. Kieso, 696 North Ave., Aurora, Ill.

The great number of unsolicited testimonials on file at the Pinkham Laboratory, many of which are from time to time published by permission, are proof of the value of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, in the treatment of female ills.

Every ailing woman in the United States is cordially invited to write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass., for special advice. It is free, will bring you health and may save your life.

POLICE DOGS HELP IN WAR ON CRIME

Sagacious Animals Go With Bluecoats on Patrol in Outlying Sections.

New York.—New York's police dogs are having a large part in cleaning up crime in the Flatbush section of Brooklyn and in making it a place where women may walk the streets safely late at night without fear of annoyance. The vigilance and activity of the dogs have done much to rid this cozy settlement of detached houses of tramps, idlers and criminals. The dogs have also done much in Riverdale, where several were dispatched after a series of burglaries.

The police department is devoting considerable time to the serious training of these dogs with a view to finding out to what extent they may be used in certain lines of police work. Kennels for the accommodation of twenty-four dogs have been built at Foster avenue and Ocean parkway, two blocks from the Parkville police station, and a good sized dogs' hospital has been constructed, in which the animals when ill may be isolated and receive veterinary treatment.

There are twelve full grown Belgian and German shepherd dogs in the department, and to these may be added a litter of nine German shepherd puppies, which arrived at the kennels recently. The dogs are in charge of Sergeant Joseph Hickey, who has thirteen patrolmen to assist him in their handling. A dog is assigned to each patrolman. Every night the police go out to patrol with the animals. The dogs wear large leather muzzles, so that they may not bite any one, for they are powerful enough to tear a man limb from limb.

GETS HALF MILLION FOR HIS OIL PRODUCING FARM

Texan at Goose Creek Waited Patiently Until Things at Last Came His Way.

Houston, Tex.—John Gaillard sold his farm at Goose Creek, Tex., recently for $500,000. There were 267.7 acres, and he reserved one-half acre, the ancient burial ground of the Gaillard family. The Gulf Production company was the purchaser. It owned oil leases on most of the farm from which Gaillard had been drawing a one-eighth royalty since the Goose Creek oil field was opened several years ago. Last August gusher oil was discovered on the Gaillard place, and since then the proprietor, known as the "silent magnate of Goose Creek," has drawn a half million in royalties. It was to avoid the payment of these royalties that the oil company bought the farm outright.

John Gaillard is a man who speaks only when necessary. He was born on the place forty-eight years ago. His father took up the land in the early days of Texas. With wealth at his command, John Gaillard does not keep a telephone in the house. His wife likes the simple life as well as the husband.

Since 1907, when the first boring for oil at Goose Creek was begun, John Gaillard has silently watched the development—and held on to his land. Hundreds of thousands of barrels have gushed from the earth at Goose Creek since last August, and from every barrel the Gaillard family drew its royalty.

If John Gaillard knows what to do with his money he is not telling any one. As one of his neighbors remarked, "John doesn't need a gyar-deen."

WOLF ATTACKS LITTLE GIRL.

Half Strayed Animal Is Then Slain by Farmers Near Penn Yan.

Rochester, N. Y.—A gray timber wolf weighing about eighty pounds and apparently almost starved, was killed in a small patch of woods near Penn Yan, not far from this city.

Lucy Ballard, the twelve-year-old daughter of a farmer at Benton Center, near Penn Yan, was on her way to church when the wolf leaped out at her at a lonely point in the road. She screamed and struck at it with her handbag and fled down the road. Her cries were heard by Adam Babcock, a farmer living near by, and when he appeared the wolf took to the fields and made its way to the patch of woodland.

The alarm was given and a number of farmers armed with rifles and shotguns, surrounding the wood, succeeded in beating up the wolf and killing it.

SUES FOR 50 CENTS.

Colonel Baylor Names Three Railroad Companies as Defendants.

Atlanta, Ga.—Colonel Henry Bedinger Baylor, Virginian by birth, Georgian by adoption and lord of San Souci castle, Bedford place, Atlanta, filed suit for 50 cents in the city court recently.

Colonel Baylor is the man who offered his sword to France some time ago and got a letter from President Poincaré's secretary thanking him. His suit for 50 cents names as defendants the Georgia railroad, the Atlantic Coast Line Railway company and the Tidewater Power company.

Colonel Baylor charges that the half dollar is due him for excess charges on baggage checked from Atlanta to Wrightsville Beach, N. C., July 17, 1916.

Overheated Air.
A rise of temperature in the surrounding air diminishes the amount of oxygen consumed and the amount of dioxide discharged. A fall of temperature has the opposite effect. In addition, the overheated air forms a hot jacket around the body which prevents the radiation of heat necessary to keep the body in a healthy condition. With a sedentary occupation a temperature of from 64 to 70 should be maintained for comfort and health.

Vivid Blouses.
There is an attempt to bring back vivid blouses for the spring. This will be quite easy to do if the blouses are worn outside and not inside the skirt. Straight middy blouses of blue and purple crepe de chine are offered in the specialty shops. They are embroidered in colored threads and bullion.

A man should have a good excuse ready before committing a mean act.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

A laboring man with horny hands,
Who swung the axe, who tilled his lands
Who shrank from nothing new,
But did as poor men do.

One of the people. Born to be
Their curious epitome,
To share, yet rise above,
Their shifting hate and love.

Common his mind, it seemed so then,
His thoughts the thoughts of other men,
Plain were his words, and poor—
But now they will endure.

No hasty fool of stubborn will,
But prudent, cautious, still—
Who, since his work was good,
Would do it as he could.

No hero, this, of Roman mold—
Nor like our stately sires of old.
Perhaps he was not great—
But he preserved the state.

O, honest face, which all men know,
O, tender heart, but known to few—
O, wonder of the age,
Cut off by tragic rage.

—By R. H. Stoddard.

GIRL SHOWS HER PLUCK.

Handicapped by Coast, She Saves Two From Drowning.

Sheboygan, Wis.—Virginia Fessler, aged fifteen, daughter of Bernard Fessler of Sheboygan, was unable to unfasten her heavy coat and cape in her anxiety when her brother Jacob, aged six, and Cecilia Meiger, seven, broke through the ice in the Sheboygan river above the cofferdam at Sheboygan falls, so she broke through the thin ice and swam in her heavy clothes to the middle of the river and rescued her brother as he sank for the third time, came back to shore, then returned and saved Cecilia.

The children were throwing sticks on the ice for a pet dog to bring back. One went to the open channel, and the dog fell into eight feet of water. The children went out to rescue the dog and broke through. Virginia learned to swim last summer. She wore gloves and could not unfasten her cloak as she ran out on the ice, but broke through, and with her fist broke a channel to rescue her brother and his companion.

REMEMBERS LOW PRICES.

Man Would Not Sell His Eggs For 3 Cents a Dozen.

Macon, Mo.—"People who complain of paying 5 cents apiece for eggs think they are in hard luck," remarked J. H. Wright, one of the county's pioneers, "but I can tell you we thought times were a good deal worse in the fifties, when eggs were selling at 3 cents a dozen," he said. "I remember one day of taking a basket of the nicest eggs ever laid to old Bloomington and offering them to the merchant there. When he told me he could get all the eggs he wanted for 3 cents a dozen and wouldn't pay any more I took mine back home."

"Those were what you call real hard times, as far as money was concerned. People raised lots more stuff on the farm, but couldn't get anything for it because there was no way to get it to market."

The easiest things in the world to forget are your other troubles when you have the toothache.

It is said that some evils are necessary. Can you name one that is?

It is much easier to break a dead man's will than a live woman's won't.

It may console the self-confessed coward to realize that he is still in a position to admit it.

Ever notice how easy it is for a man to be good-natured when everything is coming his way?

Eve never left poor old Adam at home to look after the children while she went about the country preaching women's rights.

Modern Joke—Very Funny

Son—"Pop, what's an egg?"
Pop—"I don't know."

Some women swallow flattery just as a baby swallows buttons—regardless of the trouble that may follow.

Statistics show there is in circulation at the present time in the United States $4,024,065,762, about half of which is in gold. This is enough to give every man, woman and child $39.28. We wish the party who has our share would bring it in.

Most men can see where their wife would have made a splendid gang boss, but for the accident of birth.

FOR CROUP, COUGHS AND COLDS

A Baxter, Wheeler, Wis., says: "For ten years we have used Foley's Honey and Tar in our family and consider it the best cough medicine on the market, especially for children, as they like to take it." Contains no opiates; safe for babies; effective for adults. Checks croup; stops coughs; relieves colds.—Hite's Drug Store.

Men are born, but husbands are made.

A homely truth is better than a handsome lie.

Some men get an awful jolt when they fall in love.

One smile of fortune is better than three of her laughs.

Only the man who has nothing to live for can afford to loaf.

He's a poor musician who is unable to play upon your feelings.

A spinster may imagine that marriages are arranged in Heaven, but a married woman knows better.

FELT LIKE 90. NOW LIKE 21

Like a weak link in a chain, a weak organ enfeebls the whole body. Weak kidneys lower vitality. A. W. Morgan, Angola, La., writes: "I suffered with pains in the back. I am 43 years old, but I felt like a man of 90. Since I took Foley's Kidney Pills I feel like I did when I was 21." 50c and $1.00 sizes.—Hite's Drug Store.
